SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS.

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy Now Facts of Science.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair off at the root; and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Mannett, in the Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal suit of hair. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

License Increased to One Thousand Dollars.

Amid scenes of excitement almost unprecedented in Ohio legislative procedure the Senate yesterday afternoon passed the Aiken House bill increasing the saloon tax from $350 to $1,000, and sealed its action by voting down a motion to reconsider.

The lobbies of the Senate chamber were packed to suffocation by spectators long before the hour for the Senate to convene. The advocates of the $1,000 tax went into the session with only 18 votes—one less than a constitutional majority. Four of the Senators—Messrs. Beatty, Berry, Boehmer and Denman—had agreed to support the bill if the tax was reduced to $600, and arrangements had been made to offer an amendment to this effect, but it was shut out by a motion for the previous question, which closed the debate and brought the bill to a vote before the opponents of the measure realized what had been done.

The roll-call showed 18 votes for the bill and 18 against it. Mr. Beatty, who had voted against the bill rather than allow the measure to fail entirely, immediately changed his vote, giving it a constitutional majority. A shout that resounded through the entire Capitol went up from the temperance people in the lobby, and during the attending excitement Senators Berry, Denman, Boehmer and Lanman also changed their votes, giving the measure four more than required. Senator Berry moved the reconsideration of the vote, and the lieutenant governor, seemingly not hearing demands for the yeas and nays, promptly called for a viva voce vote, and the motion was declared lost.

Senator Ward, of Cleveland, and others declared the lieutenant governor's action one of the most disgraceful proceedings ever witnessed in a legislative body. The lieutenant governor replying to the senators who had assailed him, declared that he was acting within the rules of parliamentary procedure.

The Aiken bill will go into effect immediately upon being signed by the governor, or within 10 days should it not be signed or vetoed. The brewers claim the bill will drive half the saloons of Ohio, or about 6,000, out of business.

The Naval Bill.

The House committee on naval affairs decided yesterday to report a building programme for new ships in the navy as follows:

One battleship to cost, exclusive of armor and armament, $6,000,000, the ship to be of the largest type, the tonnage to be determined by the Secretary of the Navy; three torpedo-boat destroyers, to cost $750,000 each, and $1,000,000 to be expended by the Secretary of the Navy for submarine boats in his discretion.

The naval bill will carry a total of $99,750,000. The current law aggregates $103,000,000.

The committee placed an item of $100,000 in the bill for the repair of the old ship Constitution. The idea is that with this amount, while the ship cannot be rebuilt, it can be placed in shape to be anchored at some navy yard to be designated, convenient for inspection by the public, the same as is now the case with Nelson's old flagship Victory, at the Portsmouth, England, navy yard.

In reaching its decision regarding the size of the proposed new battleship the committee favored the recommendation recently made by the Secretary of the Navy that the ship be of 19,000 tons displacement. This recommendation, however, was not incorporated in the bill, the matter being left with the Secretary. At the suggestion of Representative Cousins, of Iowa, private shipbuilding firms are to be asked to submit plans for the new ships, to be used in connection with the plans of naval constructors in determining the features to be incorporated in the structure. The idea of the committee is to have the largest ship practicable constructed. The amount appropriated is regarded as sufficient to cover the cost of a 20,000-ton ship. The 16,000-ton ships, which at present are the largest of the navy, cost, exclusive of armor and armament, $4,400,000.

The provision for submarines, proposed by Representative Vreeland, of New York, is as follows:

"The Secretary of the Navy is hereby authorized in his discretion to contract for or purchase submarine, subsurface or submergible torpedo boats to an amount not exceeding $1,000,000, after such competitive tests as he shall see fit to prescribe to determine the practical efficiency of the different boats for which bids may be submitted."

Starving to Death.

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair St., Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters; with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed." Best health Tonic on earth. 50c. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons druggists.

IN STRICT CONFIDENCE.

Women Obtain Mrs. Pinkham's Advice and Help.

She Has Guided Thousands to Health.—How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Mrs. Alice Berryhill.

It is a great satisfaction for a woman to feel that she can write to another telling her the most private and confidential details about her illness, and know that her letter will be seen by a woman only.

Many thousands of cases of female diseases come before Mrs. Pinkham every year, some personally, others by mail. Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years under her direction and since her decease she has been advising sick women free of charge.

Mrs. Pinkham never violates the confidence of women, and every testimonial letter published is done so with the written consent or request of the writer, in order that other sick women may be benefited as she has been.

Mrs. Alice Berryhill, of 313 Boyce Street, Chattanooga, Tenn., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Three years ago life looked dark to me. I had ulceration and inflammation of the female organs and was in a serious condition.

"My health was completely broken down and the doctor told me that if I was not operated upon I would die within six months. I told him I would have no operation but would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. He tried to influence me against it but I sent for the medicine that same day and began to use it faithfully. Within five days I felt relief but was not entirely cured until I used it for some time.

"Your medicine is certainly fine. I have induced several friends and neighbors to take it and I know more than a dozen who had female troubles and who to-day are as well and strong as I am from using your Vegetable Compound."

Just as surely as Mrs. Berryhill was cured, will Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cure every woman suffering from any form of female ills.

If you are sick write Mrs. Pinkham for advice. It is free and always helpful.

Virginia Woman's Treasure.

There are prospects of a merry contest in the courts at Carlisle, Pa., over the estate left by Minerva White, who was probably one of the most unique characters who has ever lived in southern Pennsylvania. She died at the little tollgate, just outside the beautiful park and summer resort, at Mount Holly Springs, on October 28, last, amid surroundings of squalor. She is said to have come from a well-known family in Virginia. Disappointed in a love affair, she went to Cumberland county and obscured herself in a position as tollgate keeper at Mount Holly. She filled the position for 35 years, and would not allow visitors in her house. At her death she was 76 years old. The republican organization leader in Cumberland county, Col. Charles H. Mullen, and members of his family, performed many acts of kindness for Minerva, as she was known far and near, thinking her penniless. At her death, when a search was made, the investigators found stored in odd corners and nooks various large sums of money. In one place, it is said, nearly a bushel of silver and nickel coins were secreted. In the attic and in old chests, the searchers discovered faded silk and satin evening gowns of great value, magnificent laces and great rolls of silks, hidden away with great care. The value of things found amounted to thousands of dollars.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAR. 28, 1906.

ANOTHER movement was made last night to formulate a plan looking toward introducing electricity in the city of Alexandria for illuminating purposes as well as furnishing power to such as desire the same. Whether it is destined to meet the fate of the previous measure remains to be seen. We believe we voice the opinion of a decided majority of the people of the city when we say that the time has come when some decided movement should be inaugurated toward bringing about this desideratum, with all due deference to a minority of the city fathers who cannot see their way clear to vote for an ordinance having that end in view. It is urged and, we believe, logically, that persons who desire to come to Alexandria for the purpose of establishing manufacturing plants want electricity, and so long as they have no positive assurances that they can obtain it here they will give us the go-by. Besides our own people, desiring to be abreast of the times, want modern illumination and electric power. As has been said in and out of Council and in these columns, the city is in no condition to build a modern electric plant, and many believe that if it were it could not or would not be run on business principles, as it is seldom such enterprises are when yoked with politics; e. g., the attempts to run steamboat lines in other cities by municipalities. But, waiving all this, the city is impotent to meet this want while others are in positions to do so, and, while we cannot, it does not seem to be in the line of prudence to obstruct others who can bring about the desired conditions. There is no intention of reflecting upon others who differ with us on this question. They are doubtless animated by the best motives and are convinced they are acting for the city's welfare, but the majority believe their eyes are also turned in the same direction, and have equally as much at stake as those who still cling to the principle of municipal ownership. This cherished tradition, while practical in some places, has been proven to be impractical in others, and there is reason to believe that it is inapplicable to Alexandria. It has so far worked satisfactorily in Scotland among a class who are disposed to follow the even tenor of their way, but this does not prove the universal efficacy of the principle. It is hoped the ordinance now before Council will receive the earnest attention it deserves, and that it may be proven to the satisfaction of the suspicious that no serpent lurks within it.

THE speech of Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York, before the Southern Manufacturers' Club at Charlotte, N. C., last week, advocating the choice of a democratic presidential nominee from one of the southern States, has called forth much favorable comment throughout the South, at least among the conservative members of the party, who are alarmed at the progress made by the Hearst boom. Judge Parker said that Nebraska had been tried and New York, with failure in each case, and that 80 per cent. of the young men of the North are now allied with the republican party, while many of the old leaders have advocated or joined the republicans. This address is understood to have given coherence to the presidential boom for Senator Bailey, of Texas.

SENATOR ALDRICH, of Rhode Island, is pilloried in the April Cosmopolitan by David Graham Phillips as the head organizer of the "treason of the Senate." Mr. Phillips says that Aldrich has been the boss of the Senate for the last twenty years, because he has been the chosen representative of the dominant business interests of the country, the great trusts and robber barons, chief of which is Rockefeller, whose only son married the daughter of Aldrich. Aldrich is credited with the revision of the McKinley and Wilson tariff bills, so as to protect the trusts. According to this critic, Aldrich has repeatedly dictated legislation to the House by threatening to withdraw campaign contributions of the great moneyed interests.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY JEROME, of New York, declares that Borough President Coler "has proved himself a yellow dog." Mr. Coler in reply describes Mr. Jerome as "a dirty cur." Both of these eminent reformers seem to have acquired their social amenities from "Andy" Hamilton, who denounces his former employers as "curs." The Tribune hopes that this common habit of epithet does not mean that they are three of a kind.

THE OLD frigate Constitution, now in the Boston navy yard, is to be refitted and restored to her original rig. Then she will be maintained so, something in the manner in which Nelson's flagship Victory is maintained at Portsmouth yard, in England. This is proper. The old frigate should be preserved by all means as one of the most interesting relics of by-gone days.

From Washington.

Washington, March 28.

Scandalous conditions in the United States Consular Service were today disclosed to the House of Representatives by President Roosevelt and Secretary of State Root. John Goodnow, former Consul General at Shanghai, and Robert McWade, former Consul at Canton, are made the subject of official complaints. There are eighty-two charges against Goodnow arising in connection with the collection of claims, and the conduct of his office. McWade is charged with unbecoming conduct and with issuing false Chinese certificates. President Roosevelt today submitted to Congress the report of former Third Assistant Secretary of State Herbert H. F. D. Peirce, dealing with the condition of American consulates in the orient. Secretary Root in transmitting the information called for by a House resolution calls attention to the fact that certain confidential observations have been omitted. He says: "These reports disclose grave misconduct on the part of two consuls formerly occupying important posts in the East. These consuls are no longer in the service. I regret to say, however, that there are indications of other cases of misconduct or inefficiency among consuls in various parts of the world." He argues from this that regular and systematic supervision is shown to be the most essential requisite for the good administration of the consular service. The report also mentions several other consular officers by name who have passed the age of usefulness.

Midshipman Minor Meriwether, jr., according to the report of the medical board, passed the physical examination for promotion from the third to the second class at the Naval Academy. It is improbable that his resignation will be accepted by the department unless failure in the mental examinations alters his standing.

The State Department is informed by Ambassador White at Algeciras that the delegates from the several governments have agreed upon the police question, and have referred the matter to their government on the adreferendum basis on which the convention met. It is believed that the foreign offices will agree to the Franco-Spanish policing plan with a supervising inspector answerable to the Sultan and the diplomatic corps.

Orders were issued at the War Department today for Brig. Gen. J. F. Bell to proceed to Washington to assume the duties of Chief of Staff.

President Roosevelt sent for District Commissioner Macfarland this morning and announced that it was his desire to reappoint him to serve a third term as District Commissioner.

Some difficulty attends the change in ambassadors at Vienna. No response has been received at the State Department to Secretary Root's message to the Austrian government of the recall of Mr. Storer and the direction to Mr. Rives to act as charge d'affaires until the arrival of Ambassador Francis. The Austrian government, according to advices from Mr. Rives has expressed its unwillingness to receive the letter of recall of Mr Storer at the hands of an emissary of less grade than an ambassador. Therefore Mr. Rives will not present the letter of recall, and the Austrian government knows of the change only by the message to that effect from Secretary Root. Ambassador Francis will probably present the letter of recall of his predecessor upon his arrival in Vienna. Mr. Storer who is now on his way back to Vienna from Egypt, will spend but a few days in the Austrian capital, and will exercise only the prerogatives of a plain American citizen while there.

The races at Benning were again largely attended today, the weather being the best since the opening day. The sport was fine.

Senator Martin was in the Senate yesterday for the first time since his return from Albemarle, where he was called last week by the fatal illness of his mother.

It is said that Judge L. L. Lewis will be employed to represent the government in the prosecution of Representative Spencer Blackburn, of North Carolina, indicted for violation of the federal statute in accepting a fee for practicing before one of the departments while a member of Congress.

Scene in the House.

The House of Representatives yesterday witnessed a most unusual scene, the Speaker rising on the floor in the midst of a spirited discussion on reciprocity and tariff revision and disclaiming responsibility for differences between minority members. It was toward the close of the debate on the urgency deficiency bill, which appropriates among other things for the forthcoming conference at Rio Janeiro, when Mr. Shackleford rose to explain what he intended saying last week in relation to the Missouri volunteers' bill when he was taken from the floor by Mr. Tawney, who objected to the personal character of the remarks.

Mr. Shackleford, with trembling voice, read a prepared statement regarding the language he intended to use when taken off the floor last week by Mr. Tawney, who objected to the tenor of his words, as they seemed to reflect upon the Speaker.

Mr. Shackleford said that the bill introduced by his colleague (Mr. Rhodes) to pension the Missouri volunteers should pass.

"We're here— De Armond, Clark, Lloyd, Bucker, Hunt, Wood, Shackleford—all ready and anxious to vote for the measure. Take your heavy hand off the old soldier, Mr. Speaker, and let us vote for this bill," he said.

As he sat down with this utterance still ringing through the hall Speaker Cannon arose. Republicans gathered in front of the Speaker's desk and democrats crowded the aisles. The speaker showed deep feeling as he replied:

"Mr. Chairman, just a second, and a second only. I have listened to the gentlemen from Missouri, Mr. Shackleford. If it affords him any consolation to make me a stalking horse on account of the quarrel with the minority leader well and good." [Applause.]

Mr. Shackleford, with deep feeling, replied, in the midst of the confusion which ensued owing to the Speaker's unusual appearance:

"I deny, Mr. Speaker, that my quarrel with you has any such foundation."

The excitement was hushed by the chairman's determined effort not to let the House get away from the point at issue.

DeLancey Nicoll, vice chairman of the democratic national committee, in a highly sensational speech in New York last night at the Democratic Club, with August Belmont presiding, denounced Representative William R. Hearst as a scoundrel and a political traitor and assassin.

The Ohio House last evening concurred in the Senate amendment to the appropriation bill setting aside $75,000, instead of $50,000, for the State's participation in the Jamestown Exposition. The woman was given six months in jail and placed under $500 bond for 12 months.

Delegate Harry R. Houston is in Richmond to look into the responsibility for the emasculation of the bill creating a Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institute, so that it cuts off the appropriation of $5,000 and makes the law impotent until the next session. He has a letter from Delegate Robert W. Withers, of Suffolk, which shows that the conference committee agreed to make the appropriation of $5,000, and that it was so ordered by both houses. Why the bill was enrolled without the appropriation is the matter he is investigating. He will not undertake to blame anyone until he can examine the original bill and other papers and records in connection therewith. The committee on jugged bills may have to be recalled.

The Miners and Operators.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 18.—Final word, either settling disputed questions or declaring an industrial war in the bituminous coal fields, had not been said when the joint conference of miners and operators went before the public again this morning. The conference Tuesday lasted until 5:30 p. m., and adjourned until nine o'clock this morning. Since the opening of the joint conference yesterday afternoon, actions and speeches of both sides have indicated that the final result with them is a foregone conclusion. It is to be war in the coal fields, or at least a portion of them. Both sides have simply endeavored to put themselves on public record before the final break comes. In the address of one operator yesterday afternoon it was stated that the public must be considered in the matter, and that the public either might intervene or be asked to intervene if it came to a clash.

Doboter imprisoned the woman in a wooden cage and buried her for six weeks in his farm yard, leaving only a narrow aperture through which she could breathe, and through which he occasionally passed her crusts and water. At times he prodded her with a hay fork while she was thus at his mercy. The authorities finally learned of the circumstances and when police officers dug the woman up she was entirely naked and there were twenty wounds on her body made by the hay fork. The old woman was barely alive and died the day after being rescued. Dobetor's neighbors learned of the cruelties he had practiced on his mother, and tried to lynch him as he was being taken away to prison.

Liverpool, March 28.—The Post in its issue today publishes a dispatch from St. Petersburg which states that ominous news has been received by the government regarding the rebellious spirit of the troops in internal garrisons of Russia. The revolutionary leaders believe that this spirit of rebellion is due to the cunning distribution by the revolutionists of inflammatory literature among the soldiers which the authorities are powerless to prevent. City Council.

The City Council was in session about an hour last night. Another ordinance having for its object the introduction of electricity in Alexandria for light and power was introduced and referred. The other business transacted was, in a measure, of a routine nature.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Mr. Simpson introduced a resolution (which will be found in the official proceedings) calling upon the City Engineer to survey certain property belonging to the city in the northeastern section of the city. The paper was appropriately referred.

Mr. Simpson also made a few remarks in justification of the resolution recently passed by both boards of Council calling upon Senator Machen and Delegate Caton to oppose an act introduced at the last session of Legislature increasing the pay of police justices and providing for their appointment by judges of courts under certain conditions.

The Aldermen laid over, under the rules, certain papers which came in from the lower board, and concurred by unanimous votes in the action of the Common Council upon the others.

COMMON COUNCIL.

The board came to order shortly before 8 o'clock.

The finance committee, through Mr. Bryan, reported the the following additional appropriations to supply deficiencies: For cleaning streets, $1,000; public property, $300; fire department, $400; chain gang, $300; streets and sewers, $2,000; total, $5,000.

The report was agreed to.

The application of Martin Lawler for release from penalty &c, on overdue taxes upon real estate, while in litigation, was granted on a favorable report of the finance committee.

The annual tax bill fixing the tax on property at $1.90 on the hundred dollars and 50 cents on persons was reported, unchanged from last year by the finance committee. The clause exempling manufacturing machinery from taxation was left in the bill.

Mr. Uhler said that the exemption of manufacturing machinery was unconstitutional and he moved to strike out the provision.

Mr. Bryan agreed, but said the committee left the ordinance as they found it.

Mr. Leadbeater asked if it would not be better to make the tax $1.71 instead of $1.90 with a ten per cent. discount, and to impose a penalty if the bills were not paid promptly.

The chair said that these matters had been considered by other finance committees who believed that a discount would bring money more promptly than the imposition of a penalty for delinquents. He saw no reason for striking out the exemption of manufacturing machinery. No one would call on the courts in the matter and the assessors and tax collectors would know that the City Council was behind them in making the exemption.

Mr. Uhler withdrew his amendment and the ordinance was unanimously agreed to.

An appropriation of $2,500 for improvements and repairs to the gas works was made.

The light committee reported adversely upon the application of the Liberty Baptist Church for an arc-light at the corner of Alfred and Montgomery streets, and favorably on a similar application of the Mutual Ice Company for a light at the corner of Union and Cameron streets.

Mr. Uhler explained that in the first case wire for three blocks would be needed; but in the other, as the proposed light was close to the light works, the current for it would not unduly tax the electric resources.

The report was agreed to.

Mr. C. F. Thompson, through Mr. Risheill, sent in a proposal for a municipal electric works. He suggests an immediate appropriation of $10,000, and that annual appropriations would enable the city to establish a municipal plant and secure all the profits. The matter was referred.

Mr. Bryan reintroduced the old ordinance for advertising for bids for an electric light plant, and asked that it be referred.

Mr. Spinks said the Corporation Attorney was of the opinion that the ordinance was unconstitutional. He hoped that that official would be consulted before any reference of the ordinance was made.

The ordinance was referred to the finance and light committees.

Mr. A. Sydney Mankin asked leave to erect a two story frame residence and store at the northwest corner of Lee and Wolf steeets, which was granted.

An application of the Alexandria Kindergarten for $200 was referred to the finance committee.

Mr. Leadbeater introduced a resolution asking the committee on police to make inquiries as to the salaries paid the police in other cities of Virginia with about the same population as Alexandria.

Mr. Leadbeater said that many citizens thought that the Alexandria policemen were overpaid for what they do, but underpaid for what they ought to do. He believed that more pay would produce better service if not better men. It was known that the laws were violated within a stone's throw of police headquarters and no notice taken. The law in relation to throwing ashes in the streets had not been enforced, although the attention of the police had been called to it. Reform, he said, was needed. The subject went to the committee on police.

Mr. Spinks said that the police committee had never organized.

An ordinance authorizing the Alexandria Chemical and Fertilizer Company to construct a bridge at 18 feet above Princess street between Lee and Union streets was passed unanimously.

The order that the limits of city property on the fish wharf be platted, and the rents and tenants be ascertained was agreed to.

Dr. T. B. Cochran tendered his resignation as a councilman from the 3rd ward, and the resignation was accepted with regrets.

Mr. Bryan said that the replies of the State Senator and Delegate to a resolution asking them to oppose a bill in relation to police justices in cities should be read in the City Council.

The Chair said he believed the papers were in the hands of the clerk of the Aldermen and that the measure which the Council opposed had failed to become a law.

After a recess to await business from the Aldermen, information was received that the Aldermen were ready to adjourn and the board at 8:55 adjourned.

Official.

The Tax Collector is requested to make an immediate report to the Committee on Public Property.

The following were received from the Common Council and laid over An act imposing taxes on persons, etc, for the year commencing June 1, 1906, and ending May 31, 1907; an ordinance granting permission to the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company to erect a bridge to connect their buildings on Princess street, between Lee and Union; report of the Committee on Light recommending an expenditure of $2,500 for improvements at the Gas Works, and the report of the Finance Committee on a communication from the Auditor recommending an appropriation of $5,000 to meet certain current expenses.

A Murder Recalled.

Today thirty-three years ago Charles Manley, colored, was hanged in the jail yard of this city for the murder of John Monroe, a clockmender. Monroe was a Scotchman, and he was murdered while sitting by a spring in the midst of the colored suburb known as "Petersburg," in the extreme northern section of the city. Samuel and Lewis Payne, both colored, were Manley's accomplices. The murder was of a brutal nature. Monroe was terribly beaten and bruised about the head and his abdomen mashed with large stones. His assailants, supposing he was dead, after robbing him of a small sum of money, dragged their victim to a neighboring ditch from which he managed to crawl later. He was discovered subsequently and taken to his boarding house where he died shortly after telling his experience. The Paynes left the city on the night of the murder and have never been heard of since, but the late John L. Smith, then Lieutenant of the Police, captured Manley and found Monroe's watch in his pocket and his boots and hat in his possession. Manley was at first defiant, but finally listened to colored preachers who visited him after his trial. About seven hundred persons witnessed his execution.

In June of the same year a colored man named Jackson was executed in the jail yard. He killed his wife in Alexandria county.

Funerals.

The funeral of Mr. Norval E. Foard, state editor of the Baltimore Sun, who died Monday morning at his home in Baltimore, after a brief illness, took place this morning at 10 o'clock. Services were conducted by Rev. John Timothy Stone, pastor of Brown Memorial Presbyterian Church, and interment was made in Druid Ridge Cemetery. Suitable resolutions on the death of Mr. Foard were passed by the Journalists' Club of Baltimore at a special meeting yesterday.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Bridget T. Hart took place from St. Mary's Church at 9 o'clock this morning and was attended by relatives, friends and acquaintances of the deceased. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Bowden, and the pallbearers were Messrs. P. F. Gorman, Geo. H. Harlow, Edward Quinn, Albert T. Schoeni, James Peverill and M. B. Harlow.

The funeral of the late Madeline E. Ross, colored, took place this afternoon from Roberts Chapel.

The Fishing Season.

There is a feeble awakening at Fishtown, preparatory to the opening of the season, but there are no receipts to report. Some of the gillers who are stationed in the lower river have made "drifts," but they failed to net any shad. It was thought that the mild conditions of yesterday and the stiff southerly wind would improve conditions, but, so far as known, they failed to bring shad or herring into the river.

Police Court.

There was but one case on the docket of the Police Court this morning. Officer Roberts yesterday arrested John Smoot, colored, who was charged with being a participant in the gambling and disorderly proceedings in a house in the extreme northern section of the city last Sunday week. He left $5 collateral for his appearance, but failed to respond when the case was called this morning. His collateral was accordingly forfeited.

Missing Tools Found.

Mr. William N. Brissey went to the station house this morning and reported that two hand-saws, a hatchet, two planes, a chisel and a spirit level, belonging to him, had been stolen from Odd Fellows' Hall, on north Columbus street. Later it was ascertained that a colored man employed at the building had merely removed the tools from one room to another, and they were restored to their owner.

Company Chartered.

The State Corporation Commission yesterday granted the following charter of incorporation: M. B. Harlow & Co., incorporated, principal office, Alexandria; incorporators, M. B. Harlow, president; Ross T. Elliott, vice president and treasurer, and E. J. Fleming, secretary; capital stock, $10,000; objects and purposes, to do a general real estate and insurance business.

W. C. T. U.

The regular business meeting of the Allison W. C. T. U. will be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Children's Home on Duke street.

The prayer meeting will also be held at 7:30 in the evening. This meeting will be of special interest as Mrs. Amy Weech has prepared an illustrated talk, mostly for the night school boys, and hopes to have a large attendance.

Murder at Occoquan.

Fielding Chinn, a well-known colored resident of Prince William county, was shot by a colored man named Johnson at Occoquan last Saturday night. The shooting took place at an entertainment. Chinn lingered until Monday morning when he died from his injury. Johnson is said to be at large.

The Old Court House.

The old Court House building on Columbus street, between Queen and Princess, is being torn down, and it is understood that in the near future several dwellings will be erected on the site. The building was recently purchased by Mr. W. H. Peck, who is now having it razed.

Sale of Water Stock.

Mr. Samuel H. Lunt, auctioneer, will offer at public sale in front of the Fairfax street entrance to the Market Building at noon tomorrow, ninety-five shares of the stock of the Alexandria Water Company.

Mr. J. D. Knight has been awarded the contract for tearing down the old frame dwelling on the northwest corner of Lee and Wolfe street and for the erection of a store and dwelling on the site.

Personal.

The condition of Mr. Henry Strauss was thought to be more favorable this morning.

The many friends of Dr. T. M. Jones will be glad to learn that he is rapidly recovering from his recent illness.

Dr. W. R. Purvis, who has been quite sick for the past week or so, is improving and expects soon to be about again.

Faith in Alexandria Real Estate.

Prominent real estate agents in this city recently wrote to a non-resident property owner asking if his property was for sale, and received a reply this morning, in which the non-resident stated that his property was not for sale, for the reason that, in his opinion, Alexandria real estate would in the next few years bring double what it would be possible to get for it at present.

Leg Amputated.

Willie Owens, who was taken to the Alexandria Hospital yesterday, had his left leg amputated above the knee that afternoon, Drs. McGuire, Delaney and Powell, performing the operation. He is during well.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The schooner Five Sisters, from Aquia creek with lumber to Smoot & Co., has arrived.

A warrant was issued today for the arrest of Edwin Clark charged with shooting at an Italian near the canal basin. It is said that all concerned in the row were under the influence of liquor.

Richard Burnett has preferred charges against Officer William Mayhugh. Burnett claims that the officer used threatening language toward him. Mr. Mayhugh, however, says Burnett was guilty of disorderly conduct toward him.

Three pistol shots were heard about one o'clock this morning at the foot of King street and Officer Roberts and Special Officer Mullin started to ascertain the cause. They ascertained that the pistol had been discharged by one of three men who were in a boat on the river.

Henry Wood, a well-known colored man of this city, who for a number of years had been employed in the store of W. A. Johnson Co., died at his home on Wythe street near Henry last night. He had been in bad health for some time but was able to be about. Last night he was on the street near his home and was seen by Edward Hill to be in distress. The latter helped him home where in a few hours he died.

Mr. Luther Carter, real estate agent, has sold for Mr. Wm Payne house and lot No. 424 in Wheat & Suter's division, north Peyton street, to Mr. Peter S. Hall.

Mr. P. F. Downey, the official engrosser for the D. A. R., has just completed a beautiful piece of fine hand engrossing for the Washington Academy of Science.

Harvey Mayhugh, son of Officer Mayhugh, was operated upon at the Alexandria Hospital today for an affection of the glands in his neck. He is doing well.

Tariff Debate.

The refusal of the House ways and means committee to take up tariff revision yesterday was the subject of a colloquy in the House between Messrs. Williams and Payne.

Commenting upon the McCall-Payne correspondence relating to tariff revision, Mr. Williams said that Massachusetts had actually been howling for relief by revision of the tariff. She had asked for bread and been given a stone. The letter of the chairman of the ways and means committee did not come as a surprise to those who knew the gentleman, Mr. Williams said, as it was well understood that the coterie of gentlemen in charge of legislation in the House would not permit anything in the line of revision to be done. Mr. Williams declared that he had been unable to discover a desire or an ability on the part of the members of this little coterie to approach the consideration of the tariff question in a calm and judicial frame of mind.

"The man who made the first Pan-American Congress possible—James G. Blaine—is dead and forgotten by the republicans, and McKinley is almost forgotten," said Mr. Williams, "and reciprocity is also dead. The Senate refuses to pass reciprocal treaties, and it is only at the threat of the German Emperor to inaugurate a tariff war that reciprocity triumphs." He wanted to know if the gentleman from New York (Mr. Payne) was going to stand pat on the steel trust and the armor-plate trust, and whether the republican party was going to stand pat against the desires of Massachusetts for trade relief.

Replying to Mr. Williams' argument, Mr. Payne declared that the great majority of the republicans were opposed to dealing with the tariff by horizontal reductions of "pop-gun" bills. They preferred to wait for a general revision of the subject. Mr. Payne gave the House no idea when he thought that general revision would come.

Methodist Conference.

The Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South held its preliminary meeting in Central Methodist Episcopal Church at Cumberland, Md., last night.

At the service last night Presiding Elder James E. Armstrong, of the Roanoke district, preached his farewell sermon to the Conference, as he will be placed on the superannuated list.

At 9 o'clock this morning the visitors were officially welcomed by F. Brooke Whiting, city attorney, who represented Mayor M. King, after which the work of the Conference commenced.

SENATE.

Mr. Tillman again today met the recent challenge of Senator Scott, of West Virginia, that he keep the Senate posted upon railway abuses in that State. He presented a memorial from coal men of West Virginia and Ohio, charging gross discrimination against the Kanawha and Michigan Railroad, the T. & O. Railway and the Hocking Valley Railway companies.

The railway rate bill was then taken up, and Mr. Knox, of Pennsylvania, made his maiden speech, in pointing out what he considered to be the unconstitutional provisions of the Hepburn bill.

Senator Knox contended earnestly in favor of a provision for a proper method of judicial review of the orders and findings of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

"Judicial review of every substantial controversy affecting persons and property is a right," he declared. "This right was painfully won from tyrannies of the past, and is established now beyond the power of any present tyrannies to destroy, in whatever guise they may come, and even if masquerading in the name of the people. This right is to have the rights of the parties in every controversy determined by the courts. Why, then, should there be any doubt on that point in this bill? Is it because the friends of this bill doubt the character or capacity of the courts? Is the relation of the courts to government by the people forgotten? The courts are an integral and vital part of our government, and it would be a sad day for American civilization if their function were degraded and weakened. They are the balance wheel and check in our system between contending passions and policies. It is high time that the people should remember this and should soberly reflect upon the current heresies."

The Senate agreed to the Tillman resolution, calling upon the Interstate Commerce Commission to report if any agreements or custom prevailed between railways and corporations by which transportation is given for services and not for cash; whether this constitutes a violation of law, and what cases of that kind have been tried. The resolution particularly inquired as to any system of open accounts between railways and newspapers wherein the former exchange transportation for advertisements of time cards, excursions, etc.

Two important amendments to the railway rate bill were introduced in the Senate.

Mr. Lodge purposes to extend the scope of the Hepburn bill to include any persons engaged in the transit of oil or other commodity by pipe lines and railways or by pipe lines and water. Mr. Daniel offered a bill which he has been pressing fixing the liability of common carriers.

HOUSE.

When the House met today the anti-hazing bill as amended was sent to conference.

Mr. Dalzell, from the committee on rules, reported a resolution providing that points of order shall not lie against any section of the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, except against that section which limits the earnings of aged clerks and which provides for the dismissal of all clerks 70 years of age, in 1913.

This appropriation bill has been before the House for two weeks. Little progress has been made, as Messrs. Prince, republican, of Illinois, and Hardwick, democrat, of Georgia, have made points of order against every increase in pay and against the creation of all additional offices.

Mr. Dalzell said that the rule was necessary as increased government business required more money in some instances.

The members, he said, have the right to vote down all amendments or matters of increase if they so desire, but the propositions should not go out on a point of order.

Virginia School Funds.

The State board of education met in Richmond last night and transacted much important business. The election of school superintendents for the city of Portsmouth and county of Alexandria were postponed until today, to which time the board adjourned.

It was decided that the $50,000 appropriated by the legislature to the schools of the State shall be distributed by counties on a basis of school population, no county to receive a pro rata for more than one high school until all counties shall have had ample time to make application for aid for this purpose. It was further agreed that all schools accepting this appropriation shall be required to admit children from all parts of the State upon the same basis of those of the county in which such school is located.

School teachers will be allowed an extension of time until the 25th of each month in which to make their reports for the preceeding month.

Murder at Church Social.

Benjamin Capeley was killed and his wife was fatally wounded in a shooting affray between church factions Monday night at a "social" held in the Methodist church at Coaldale, W. Va. Mrs. R. Harper was shot in the side and is seriously wounded. Henry Garden, who was shot in the foot, and two women are in jail at Bramwell, awaiting investigation of the affray.

There had been ill-feeling of long-standing over the management of funds which had been raised for the erection of a new church building. The dispute over the money resulted in two factions which threatened to disorganize the congregation. Many opposed the holding of a "social" that night, fearing an outbreak.

During the evening there was a clash between adherents of the rival factions, and it is said that a blow was struck. Instantly guns were produced and shooting began.

It is not certainly known who fired the first shot, but almost as the shooting began Capeley fell to the floor with a bullet in his heart. Mrs. Harper, Henry Garden and two other men were shot within the next few minutes.

It is believed that Mrs. Capeley received her wound as she stepped from the door of the building. There was a scene of wild disorder the moment pistols began to crack. Women and children shrieked and rushed toward the exits. Mrs. Harper, Garden and James Hotten were placed under arrest pending a complete investigation by the authorities.

Triplets Average 14 1-2 Pounds.

A 14½ pound babe at birth is always considered of unusual weight, but three babies averaging that weight is the remarkable record of which John C. Henry, a merchant of Arkansas, N. C., formerly of Braddock, Pa., is wondrously proud. His wife, who has been married a half dozen years, presented him for the first born on Sunday night with three boys. The first weighed exactly 14 pounds and the father was overjoyed. A little later the second came and it weighed 16½ pounds, and the father was overcome. The record was surpassed when several moments later the third came, wheighing 13 pounds, and the father was overwhelmed.

Can you believe you senses?

When two of them, taste and smell, having been impaired if not utterly destroyed, by Nasal Catarrh, are fully restored by Ely's Cream Balm, can you doubt that this remedy deserves all that has been said of it by the thousands whom it has cured? It is applied directly to the affected air-passages and begins its healing work at once. Why not get it today? All druggists, 50c, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York, on receipt of 50 cents.

A Chicago Alderman Owes His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 220 So. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several does that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens, of Fort Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. Oh, it's grand for throat and lung troubles." ATMORE'S MINCE MEAT received to day by J. C. MILBURN

Sat Upon a Dog.

A chorus girl of "His Majesty" Company, playing in New York, will be out of the performance for some days. It all came about because a rehearsal for the chorus was called for yesterday and Stage Manager Williamson brought his dog with him.

The rehearsal proceeded until near the close, when suddenly there was a scream. A panic followed, during which 39 of the "fairies" came back to earth and made for their dressing rooms at a breakneck pace.

Not being wanted on the scene which was being rehearsed, the chorus girl had seated herself on a frail wooden box, under which Mr. Williamson's dog had settled himself. The box gave way and the girl sat down squarely on the dog. The latter, accepting this as a challenge to fight, grabbed hold of the young woman, whose name is Louie Ducey. He took a leg hold, just above the left knee, and refused to let go until Mr. Williamson got to him.

Patrolman Barron sent to Roosevelt Hospital for an ambulance, which brought Dr. Cole to the theater, who, after cauterising the wound, took the girl to her home in a cab. The police took the dog away to see if it had any signs of hydrophobia.

Sisters to Sue Waggaman.

Proceedings were begun yesterday in the courts by the Sisters of the Visitation of Georgetown against Thomas E Waggaman and others for the purpose of establishing the lien of a $9,000 note on lot 9, block S, in Cleveland Heights, just outside of Washington. In the petition the court is asked to decree a sale of the property and to substitute someone in the place of Waggaman, who is named as trustee under the deed of trust. The complainants in the case claim that in October, 1899, they gave Mr. Waggaman $9,000 to invest in first trust notes on real estate signed by Robert J. O'Brien, one of the defendants. The note, it is stated, purported to be secured on the Cleveland Heights property and a lot in square 1045. It is further stated that subsequently $400 was paid to the complainants and the square 1045 property released, leaving a balance of $8,600 still due on the note.

Fined one Dollar Each.

Laughing openly in court at the light fines imposed for rioting, the eight youths who were arrested by the soldiers some days ago during the riots in Springfield, Ohio, walked out of the Police Court yesterday free. Judge Miller, when the rioters were arraigned before him, spoke of the recommendation of the jury that the fine be only $1 on account of the youth of the accused. He said: "This matter is an outrage. I can do nothing but inflict the nominal fine of $1, as recommended by the jury. The jury was made up of leading business men and manufacturers, and their recommendation is an outrage." He then announced that he remitted the fine and costs. Many persons are indignant at what they call a farce.

Indigestion is much of a habit. Don't get the habit. Take a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure after eating and you will quit belching, puffing, palpitating and frowning. Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.
